Hunt Capital Partners, in partnership with Saigebrook Development and O-SDA Industries, has obtained $8.4 million in federal low-income housing tax credits for the development of Canova Palms, an affordable seniors housing community in Irving. The three-story property will feature 58 units. Of those, 50 will be reserved for seniors who earn up to 30, 50 and 60 percent of the area median income. Maker Bros. is the general contractor, and Miller Slayton Architects Inc. is the architect for the project. Construction began in mid-May and is slated for completion in May 2020.
